

Information Technology

Course Notes – Topic-wise Overview

Page 1: Introduction & Programming

Topics covered:

- Programming fundamentals
- Variables, data types and operators
- Conditions, loops and functions
- Object-oriented programming

Learning Focus

This section introduces the important concepts of introduction & programming. Students can use these topics as a starting point for lectures, assignments, revision and further study. Practical examples and laboratory activities can be added according to the college syllabus.

Page 2: Web Development

Topics covered:

- HTML structure and forms
- CSS styling and layouts
- JavaScript basics
- Frontend development concepts

Learning Focus

This section introduces the important concepts of web development. Students can use these topics as a starting point for lectures, assignments, revision and further study. Practical examples and laboratory activities can be added according to the college syllabus.

Page 3: Databases & Networks

Topics covered:

- Relational databases and SQL
- Tables, keys and normalization
- LAN, WAN and IP addressing
- Common network protocols

Learning Focus

This section introduces the important concepts of databases & networks. Students can use these topics as a starting point for lectures, assignments, revision and further study. Practical examples and laboratory activities can be added according to the college syllabus.

Page 4: Modern IT & Security

Topics covered:

- Operating systems
- Cloud computing
- Software engineering and testing
- Cybersecurity and data protection

Learning Focus

This section introduces the important concepts of modern it & security. Students can use these topics as a starting point for lectures, assignments, revision and further study. Practical examples and laboratory activities can be added according to the college syllabus.